

South Asian Bar Association of Greater Boston

September 18, 2008

The South Asian Bar Association of Greater Boston (“SABA GB”) is pleased to announce the appointment of its Board Member, Neil Sherring, as Co-Chair of the Massachusetts Bar Association’s (“MBA”) General Practice, Solo and Small Firm Division. The Division was formed by the MBA to keep its members current on developments and trends affecting solo and small firm practitioners.

As the managing partner of Dakoyannis & Sherring in Westwood, Sherring focuses his practice in the areas of civil and business litigation and also represents multinational clients in international business and financial disputes. Prior to founding his own practice, Sherring clerked for the Massachusetts Superior Court, and served as both an assistant district attorney and an assistant attorney general. Sherring has served as a member of the Hate Crimes Task Force for the Attorney General of Massachusetts and co-founded the South Asian Domestic Violence Task Force.

Referring to Sherring’s recent appointment, Manisha Bhatt, a Board Member of SABA GB and Co-Chair of its Legal Relations Committee, commented, “SABA GB is pleased to see its members being recognized for their achievements in the legal community. We look forward to seeing more South Asian attorneys becoming involved in leadership positions within the legal community.”

SABA GB is a chapter of the North American South Asian Bar Association. As part of its mission, SABA GB continues to support and encourage the advancement of South Asians to leadership positions within the legal community and the community at large.
